

Some info on restaurants around Chofu station

Creston Hotel is in the PARCO building.
On the 7th floor of the PARCO building there are about 10 restaurants.
Some of them exhibit the plates they serve outside.
The following is not really a list of recommended places. I'm just hoping it'll give you some idea of varieties you can find.

- Ishi-i (い志井)
1-36-10 Fuda (on Tenjin St., north of the station).
17:00~23:00
This lively izakaya restaurant specializes in pork, served on skewers like yaki tori. The friendly staff will help you sample almost any part of the pig, including heart, liver, head meat and esophagus, pointing to their own body to describe it, if necessary. They have usual pork and beef dishes as well.
- Calends (かれんど)
1-43-3 Fuda.
12:00~22:30, 700Yen~
This is a cut-above curry restaurant which has several curries which put the usual Japanese fare to shame. Try ordering the set menu with dessert, rum-topped ice cream is a nice finish after spicy curry. The owner may try to speak some English with you.
- Otoya (大戸屋)
10:00~23:00, 600Yen~
Inexpensive Japanese restaurant.
- Midori-sushi (美登利寿司)
Sushi.
- Enya (えん屋)
17:00~04:30(L.O.03:30)
Japanese.
- Dimple
18:00~
casual French
- Dining+Bar Shantin
Lunch time・・・11:30~14:00 (All L.O.13:45), 800~1300 Yen
Dinner time・・・17:00~24:00 (Food L.O.23:00)
Italian
- Irish Pub Kenny's
17:00~25:00
